Wine Bottle Holder

The traditional bucket of ice to keep your wine chilled is impractical in tropical climates. The ice melts too quickly, condensation from the bucket results in pools of water and of course water often gets dripped as you pour your wine.

In addition ice buckets take up a lot of room, the amount of ice needed requires a lot of energy and is not sustainable.

Thankfully there is a far better option: the TooCool Wine Bottle Holder:

- Stainless Steel
- Thermally Insulated
- Keeps Cool for up to 6 hours
- Optional Ice-Gel Liner
- Suitable for most 750ml Wine Bottles including Champagne

- Excellent quality at a very cost effective price

Sometimes you just need a simple, reliable way to pull a cork out of a bottle.

Introducing the Electric Wine Bottle Opener from TooCool. Utilising a hardened-steel corkscrew it is a simple operation:- place the Opener over the top of the wine bottle, press the lower gold button until the cork has been removed from the bottle, press the top gold button to release the cork from the Opener. It's that easy..

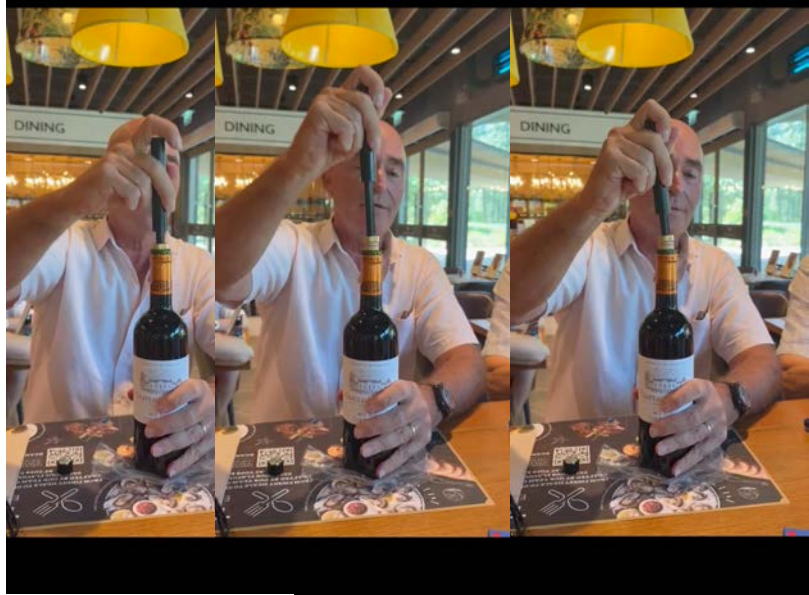

Air Pump Wine Bottle Opener

How many times have you watched someone struggle with a standard corkscrew type wine bottle opener? Struggling to pull out the cork, the cork breaking leaving a part still in the bottle....well now there is a better option, one supported by sommeliers around the world...

Insert the needle through the cork, manually pump a few times, out pops the cork - simple, fast and safe....and so much better for your wine enjoyment.

Beer Bottle Jacket

Are you fed up with warm beer, or having to put ice in your beer?

How many times have you used a standard beer holder, taken a drink of beer from the bottle only to have the condensed water in the holder spill down your front?

Time to enjoy your beer the way it was meant to be enjoyed.....

- Neoprene Jackets for 330ml and 660ml beer bottles.
- High quality, 3mm Neoprene for great insulation.
- Extra strong zipper for secure fit and long life.
- Machine washable.
- Outstanding Quality at competitive prices.
- Cold beer, no drips
